

Social Work & Society

Volume 4 (2006), Issue 2

CONTENTS

SW&S Series on European Social Services in Transition (IV)

A New Regime of Governing Childhood? Finland as an Example

Timo Harrikari and Mirja Satka

Articles

What Price Social and Health Care? Commodities, Competition and Consumers

Sue Penna and Martin O'Brien

Evidence Focused Social Care: on Target or Off-Side?

Ian J. Dore

Three Decades of Social Work in France: from Security within the Welfare State to a State of “Disembedded Modernity”

John Ward

Capabilities and Education

Hans-Uwe Otto and Holger Ziegler

Research Notes

To Work with Households that Are Facing Eviction – an Advice Bureau of Housing Rent and Its Outcome

Johan Holmdahl

Researching the Impact of Partial Labour Migration on a Child: Failure of Attachment Theory

Gedas Malinauskas

Debate: Essays

Dictionaries as Representations of the State of the Social Professions - Some Preliminary Observations from an Italian Perspective

Annamaria Campanini

Social Reports

Constellations of Disadvantage and Policy Dilemmas in Youth Transitions from School to Work in Bulgaria

Siyka Kovacheva

Country Notes

Slovenia: Rights and Discrimination

Elena Pečarič

Czech Republic: Is Social Work a Science or Is It Just a Profession?

Oldřich Chytil

Historical Portraits

Robin Huws Jones

Katherine A. Kendall

Book Reviews

Francis Fukuyama: America at the Crossroads

Michael Peters

Moonie et al: Diversity and Rights in Care

Stephen Webb

Glossary

Risk

Stephen Webb

Agora

Conferences

Documents

Social Work
& Society