

Social Work & Society

Vol 6 (2008), Issue 2

Contents

I SW&S Special Issue „Marginalized Youth“
[Editors: Fabian Kessl & Hans-Uwe Otto]

Marginalized Youth – An Introduction
Fabian Kessl & Hans-Uwe Otto (Bielefeld/GER)

Disconnected Youth? Social Exclusion, the ‘Underclass’ & Economic Marginality
Robert MacDonald (Teesside/UK)

Marginalized Youth, the ‘Modern’ Professional and the ‘Modern’ Workplace: A note on the Need for a Critical Approach to ‘Modernizing’ Strategies
Paul Michael Garrett (Galway/IRE)

Marginalization of the Youth – a Current Societal Development?
Niels Rosendal Jensen (Kopenhagen/DK)

Tackling Youth Exclusion in the UK: Challenges for Current Policy and Practice
Eldin Fahmy (Bristol/UK)

Research in Youth Culture and Policy: Current Conditions and Future Directions
Nadine Dolby (West Lafayette/USA)

Social Integration Policies for Young Marginalised: A Capability Approach
Jean-Michel Bonvin & Eric Moachon (Lausanne/CH)

What’s the Problem? Precarious Youth: Marginalisation, Criminalisation and Racialisation
John Clarke (Milton Keynes/UK)

II SW&S-Journal, Issue 2 (2008)

Articles

Women in Prostitution and Social Responsibility

Margrit Brückner (Frankfurt/GER)

Anti-Feminist Backlash and Violence against Women Worldwide

Katherine van Wormer (Cedar Falls/ USA)

Professionalism and Information Technology: Positioning and Mediation

Thomas Ley & Udo Seelmeyer (Bielefeld/ GER)

Poverty and/ or Inclusion/ Exclusion – Social Work and its Relationship to social Inequality

Thomas Wagner (Wuppertal/GER)

Research Note

Homelessness, Social Work, Social Policy and the Print Media in Australian Cities

Carole Zufferey (South Australia)

Debate

Italia: La chiusura della Casa dell'Emigrante come spunto riflessione sui rientri degli emigrati italiani

Fabio Olivieri & Anna Aluffi Pentini (Rome/IT)

Historical Portrait

Jane Addams (1860-1935): Social worker and Peace Builder

James D. Allen (St. Louis/USA)

Book Reviews

Germany in Transit: Nation and Migration, 1955-2005

Kala Chakradhar (Murray/USA)

SW&S-Glossary

Social Development

Hans Günther Homfeldt & Christian Reutlinger (St. Gallen/CH)