telephone number: +49 (0)521/55738850

1. You leave Bielefeld Central Station by the main entrance towards the centre of the city, cross the place in front of the station and immediately see a white building, the 'Hotel Mövenpick'.

How to get to the venue by suburban train

2. To get to the venue, which is called 'Ringlokschuppen', you'll find the entrance to the suburban train (in German it is called 'Stadtbahn') behind the hotel.
3. Your suburban train with the No. 2, you have to take to get to the 'Ringlokschuppen', departures from rail 2 every 10 minutes. It goes towards 'Baumheide – Milse'.
4. After leaving Central Station you have to get out of the suburban train at the second stop called 'Stadtheider Straße'.
5. At left hand you will see a car dealer selling 'Mercedes', a German make of car. You cross the rails and the street towards this car dealer. Standing in front of it, you have to go left and then directly turn right behind the building into 'Stadtheider Straße'.

How to get to the venue by feet

2. To get to the venue called 'Ringlokschuppen' by feet, you have to go into right direction.
3. Follow the street 'Am Bahnhof', which – after a right hand bend – automatically passes into 'Nahariyastraße'.
4. At the end of this street you have to turn left into 'Herforder Straße'.
5. After a walk of about 15 minutes you will see at left hand a car dealer selling 'Mercedes', a German make of car. You have to turn left into the street 'Stadtheider Straße' in front of the building.
